Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bonnell U.S. Patent 3,344,443.

Bonnell disclosed a hanging chair stand (2) comprising first and second support members each having an arm portion (top portion), a leg portion (bottom portion) and an intermediate portion, the first and second support members coupled to one another at their intermediate portions via cross member (8) and claps (7) as shown in Fig. 3; the leg portions are straight and adapted to rest on a base (ground surface); when resting on the base, the leg portion above which a hanging chair (3) is to be suspended from an end of each arm portion; the arm portions each having a curved shape; and a pair of attachment members (13, 13a) (see Fig. 4) coupled to the ends of the arm portions, the attachment members adapted to suspend the hanging chair over the region defined by each leg portion and the imaginary line connecting the end of each leg portion.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) based upon a public use or sale of the invention. The claimed invention was introduced by Green Eggs & Hammocks on 10/07/2002 (see attached sheets) which is more than a year from the filing date 11/04/2003.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 3714

Applicant's arguments filed 07/02/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argument directed to the unobviousness of the present application and Bonnell U.S. Patent 3,344,443. Claim 1 was rejected as being anticipated under 35 U.S.C 102(b).

Applicant's arguments fail to comply with 37 CFR 1.111(b) because they amount to a general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references.

In response to applicant's argument regarding whether or not the X-chair was not sold nor "in public use" prior to December, 2003, such argument was not persuasive because the first retail sales may have come at early December, 2002; however according to the X-chair as described in the Casual Living Magazine was known to public and available for the public use on 10/07/2002.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
